

"HELLO, SAVINGS!"

California Public Utilities Commission Proudly Presents:

3rd Annual California LifeLine Awareness Fair

Tuesday, Sept. 13, 2011, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

City of Citrus Heights

Community Center – Community Hall A

6300 Fountain Square Drive, Citrus Heights

(near the Fountain Square Shopping Center and right next to Sam's Club)

Free Admission ♦ Open to the Public ♦ Giveaways Galore

Guest Speaker – City of Citrus Heights Vice Mayor Jeff Slowey

Vendor booths representing State, Federal, & Community/Service/Non-profit agencies, including:

2-1-1 Sacramento, Alzheimer's Association, American Cancer Society, Area 4 Agency on Aging,
Asian Pacific Community Counseling, California Technology Assistance Project,
City of Citrus Heights Police Department, Congress of California Seniors, Contractors State License Board, Deaf & Disabled Telecommunications Program,
Department of Financial Institutions – Bank on California, National Parkinson Foundation, PG&E, Sacramento Food Bank & Family Services,
Social Security Administration, and many, many more!

The CPUC is participating in several events across the state during LifeLine Week (Sept. 12-18) to educate consumers about California LifeLine. Join us to learn how you can lower your monthly home phone bill and get unlimited local calls for less than $7 a month.

Visit www.cpuc.ca.gov/LifeLineWeek for a list of other events and more information.

A Program of the California Public Utilities Commission

